Press Report

Unfortunately the Terry Croft Memorial Trophy which was due to take place last Saturday had to be postponed because of the torrential rainfall overnight and through the day in Port Erin. The new date for this popular event is Saturday 22nd October.

The rain was meant to continue into Sunday, but the sun came out and playing conditions were near perfect for Round 11 of the Tower Insurance Mixed Open Stableford series. Guy Sutton has been playing well recently and his round of 43 points including a birdie and twelve pars yielded 43 points. Jonny Weir was close behind on 42 points. Weir had birdies on the third and twelfth holes but double bogeys on the sixth and ninth proved decisive. Sutton is now in the lead for the overall prize just one point ahead of Stevie Meehan and with a chasing pack who could overhaul him with a good round next Sunday. Watch this space!

The Seniors played for the Jack Parry Memorial Trophy on Tuesday. After last week's six club challenge the gents were back to a full set of clubs and the scoring was back to normal too! No 45 points this week! Three men had scores of 40 points (actually it was four but one signed for the wrong score and missed out - the new handicapping system is a bit too complicated for us oldies, especially in Stablefords, but the moral is that we should always check our gross scores after completing the round). The winner was Roy McLean who had six pars and a birdie in his round (we won't mention the blob on the second!). Paul Evans was runner up with a very steady round. He picked up points on every hole but just missed out with an inferior back nine. Completing the podium was Duncan Matthews who also scored on every hole.

On Saturday we have the Tower Insurance sponsored Gents Monthly Medal and on Sunday the final round of the Tower Insurance Stableford Series. Also on Sunday there is the Final of the Falcon Cup individual match play which tees off at midday.
