Press Report

It was a busy weekend on the course! On Saturday the 13-hole stableford Division 1 was won by Kevin Roberts who scored 34 points which included a birdie and seven pars. Dave Corrin had 31 points, but this included a 2 on the par three 16th, and a third share in the triple rollover 2s Sweep alongside Mike Rae and Mark Potts - which amounted to a tidy £41-50 each! Also, on 31 points, but losing out on a countback, was Neil Campbell. Division 2 was won by Russell Thomas with 31 points, four ahead of Sandra Moore on 27. On Sunday we had a nine-hole Stableford and it was that man Roberts again with 21 points who won Division 1. Guy Sutton was two points behind and will be ruing a blob on the penultimate hole. Division 2 was won by Richard Bates who had 20 points beating Donna Primrose-Smith who had 18 points. Highlight of the day although not in the competition was a hole in one on the Fifteenth Hole by Bruce Thorn who was relieved to find the clubhouse was not too busy when he finished his round!

The Seniors played a modified greensome for the Eden Creer Trophy (thanks to Bill Denard for doing a "Repair Shop" job on the decapitated cup!). Martyn Redmayne has been kind enough to sponsor this for the last couple of years and there was a healthy entry of 14 pairs. Leading the way was Mr. Captain, Ron Strathdee, and his partner Paul Evans with an impressive 35 points. Trailing in their wake were Dave Corrin and Phil Scott who edged out Jonathan Hall and Roy Pledger on a countback with both pairs on 31 points..
